KAILASH MANASAROVAR YATRA

Tentative Itinerary

Depart from Chennai in the morning by a direct flight to Lucknow. Upon arrival in Lucknow, proceed by road for approximately 200 km, taking around 5 hours, to reach Nepalgunj in Nepal. Nepal time is 15 minutes ahead of India (for example, if it is 10:00 AM in Chennai, it will be 10:15 AM in Nepal).

At this stage, your passports will not be with you, as they will be collected 90 days in advance and submitted to the Chinese Embassy in Delhi for visa processing. Therefore, to enter Nepal, you must carry your original Voter ID card. If you do not have your original Voter ID, you will not be allowed entry into Nepal, and we will not be responsible; photo copies or scanned copies will not be accepted, and you may have to return to your hometown. There is still plenty of time to obtain the original Voter ID card with a silver hologram. So, apply for it now and get it.

In the evening, a Yatra briefing session will be conducted. We will be provided with a duffel bag, a small backpack for the trek, and a down jacket for cold weather. Your original passport will also be handed over, and detailed instructions will be given. Your luggage will be checked, and essential items will be reorganized into the duffel bag for the Yatra, while excess luggage will be safely stored at the Nepalgunj hotel.

Meals: B/L/D

NH: Nepalgunj

Day 2: June 11

HILSA

In the morning, travel from Nepalgunj to Simikot (9,250 ft) by a small aircraft, which takes approximately 40 minutes. From there, continue by helicopter to Hilsa (11,950 ft), which takes about 25 minutes. Up to this point, the journey is within Nepal. The weather will be cold, so appropriate warm clothing should be worn.

Meals: B/L/D

NH: Hilsa

Day 3: June 12

TAKLAKOT

From Hilsa, after exiting Nepal, we will cross a small suspension bridge over the Karnali River to reach the China (Tibet) border. From here onwards, the journey will be under strict Chinese regulations, and only Chinese vehicles will be used, all operating under strict supervision. After walking towards the China (Tibet) side, we will present our passports to the Chinese immigration officials. As instructed by them, we will proceed in Chinese vehicles to the immigration office, complete the immigration process, and then continue by vehicle to Taklaket (Purang). After completing customs formalities, we will proceed to our hotel, have food, and move to our rooms. Here, most accommodations are basic rooms with attached bathrooms. It is a 4-storey hotel without a lift, so you will need to climb slowly. This can be considered as a small practice for the upcoming mountain trek. In Tibet, the time is 2 hours and 30 minutes ahead of Indian time. Hence, you need to adjust your watch accordingly.

Meals: B/L/D

NH: Taklaket

Day 4: June 13

MANASAROVAR

Once the MANASAROVAR permit comes start to Manas 100 kms around 11 am. Enroute see RAKSHASH DAL (Ravanan Lake). Have a hot water bath using Manasarovar water.

The accommodation here will be very basic, and the toilet facilities may be extremely poor. Therefore, everyone may have to use the open area during the night. For the 3-day Kailash Parikrama, the charges for the horse, horseman, and helper will be collected here. The Chinese agent will then travel overnight to arrange and secure the horses, horsemen, and helpers for the group.

Please note that once the payment is collected, no refund will be provided, even if you decide not to undertake the Parikrama or go only for 1 or 2 days.

Meals: B/L/D (Except for breakfast, the timings of the other two meals today may vary slightly)

NH: Manasarovar 14,850 Feet

Day 5: June 14

DARCHEN - SOUTH FACE

Early morning, during the sacred Brahma Muhurta (between 3:00 AM and 6:00 AM) , we will go to witness the divine light where celestial beings are believed to descend into Manasarovar. Sometimes this phenomenon is visible, and sometimes it may not be.

After breakfast, we will travel to Darchen (approximately 30 km), the southern face of Mount Kailash. It appears in a beautiful Lapis Lazuli (deep blue) color and is also known as the Dakshina Murti Face. On the Southern faces, the sacred Saptarishi caves are located. To visit these caves, a separate trek is required, which takes about one full day. This trek is called the Nandi Parikrama, and it begins from a place called Ashtapad. During the Kailash Parikrama, Nandi Mountain cannot be seen. It can only be seen at Ashtapad. Here in front of the south face of Mount Kailash, there is a smaller hill that appears like Nandi (the sacred bull of Lord Shiva) bowing in devotion before the mountain. (In 2026, permits to visit this area were not issued).

Meals: B/L/D

NH: Darchen

Day 6: June 15

TERAPUK - NORTH FACE

1st DAY OF GIRIVALAM / PARIKRAMA – 13 kms: After breakfast, drive 20 kms to YAMDHUWAR (Yama Temple). After reaching Yamdhuwar, we will wait in the queue to obtain the token and arrange the horse, horseman, followed by a separate token for the helper and go from 14,000 ft to 16,000 ft in 13 kms. Arrive at TERAPUK NORTH FACE around evening 4 pm. Enroute you can see the WEST FACE if it is sunny. At the NORTH FACE around 8 pm there is a possibility of seeing the NORTH FACE in the GOLDEN COLOUR depending on the weather.

South Face: Lapis Lazuli (Deep Blue Colour)

West Face: Ruby (Deep Red Colour)

North Face: Gold (Golden Colour)

East Face: Crystal (Crystal Colour)

Meals: B/L/D

NH: Terapuk 15,750 Feet

Day 7: June 16

ZUTULPUK

2nd DAY OF GIRIVALAM/PARIKRAMA 22 kms: Today is the longest & toughest day. 1st 6 kms by horse to DOLMA LA (Belongs to PARVATHI AMMA). Then 6 kms downhill by walk. Then 10 kms by horse to ZUTULPUK. At Zutulpuk can visit the Buddha Temple. The accommodation here will again be a dormitory, and the toilet facilities are located outside.

Meals: B/L/D

NH: Zutulpuk 15,500 Feet

Day 8: June 17

TAKLAKOT

3rd DAY OF GIRIVALAM/PARIKRAMA 8 kms: After breakfast, proceed on horseback to Zhophe, the endpoint of the Girivalam/Parikrama. Our vehicles will be waiting at Zhophe to pick us up and drive 60 km to TAKLAKOT.

Meals: B/L/D

NH: Taklakot

Day 9: June 18
